Poetry – Autumn Acrostic Poem

With Autumn now upon us, we wanted to take the opportunity to capture the beautiful changes in a poem. At the start of the year, we spent time reading and enjoying a range of poems. Through our discussions we have challenged some of our misconceptions and found out that - poems come in a range of styles, patterns and shapes, they don't always rhyme and aren't always funny!

For homework this week, we would like you to write a poem based on Autumn. You are free to choose how you want to present your poem. You might like to write an acrostic poem (see below) or perhaps you would like to have the freedom to create something with verses. Think carefully about each word choice as this will create a picture in your reader's mind.

Write out your poem carefully, in your neatest handwriting. You may like to illustrate it, but this is optional as the planning and writing is the main focus.
